

CALL FOR PARTICIPATION

Consensus Colloquium (CC) was designed as a platform for stakeholders to come together in discussion to find ways to cooperate in addressing specific issues in the ASEAN region. It promotes the need for sustainable policies in all countries and at all levels: national, regional and global.

This year, CCii will explore the role of Academia in the ASEAN region in the event of a natural disaster, using the ASEAN University Network (AUN) as a platform for collaboration.

Over the next five weeks, we will be hosting a facilitated online dialogue. The structure of the discussion will follow the cycle of disaster management:

Week One: Introduction

Week Two: PREPAREDNESS

Week Three: RELIEF

Week Four: RECOVERY

Week Five: Conclusion

The first week will begin on Wednesday, 13th March 2011, but registration is open at all times.
